Victims of the Michigan Forest Fire Will Go Back and Try It Again.

FLAMES CLEARED THE LAND

HOMELESS.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 20.-A staff correspondent of the Sentinel, who made a tour of the district in the upper peninsula of Michigan covered by the forest fires in a special train, the first train to go through the district since the catastrophe, telegraphs that the fire appears to be practically out in all of the district. The fire raged for a distance of sixty-four miles along the line of the Escanaba & Lake Superior railroad and for thirty miles beyond Channing, the western terminus of the road. It seems certain now that 2,000 persons are homeless in that district and that 1,000 are left desolate at Quinnesec. The Quinnesec fire, however, was of different origin than the Escanaba fire, having started in a field where men were pulling stumps and burning debris. This fire spread into the city, wiped out all the buildings mill. Then the fire spread into the tim-ber and, running north for forty miles finally joined the flames sweeping east of Escanaba.

Towns Destroyed.

It was also learned today that Woodlawn and Kingsley, on the Escanaba & Lake Superior railroad, and Perkins, on the Northwestern road, were de-stroyed. The strip burned along the Escanaba & Lake Superior line ap-pears to be thirty miles wide, and the alarming nature of the earlier reports a prominent attorney in this state for of the fire seem to be thoroughly veri- years. The fire was tery a short Episcopal service was renchecked each time at a distance of only dered. ten yards from the houses on the out-skirts. One man who carried the coffin with the remains of his dead babe thirty miles to Escanaba in his escape from the fire went back on the special train and found his home gone, but the picket fence surrounding the house un ouched. The ashes of his home had been blown away by the gale, and the Revolvers were found beside the bodies of Arthur West and West Wilson. Two citizens reported that they had been at the warehouse shortly before 7 o'clock tonight and left the trio apparently on good terms, although all had been drinking. The supposition is that West Wilson and Arthur West engaged in a shooting affray, killing each other, and that one of the bullets struck Mark Wilson.
